John Browne,

P R E F A C E.

THE EDITOR begs Leave to make his most grateful Acknowledgements to the Gentlemen of the Law and Public in general; as by their kind Assistance and Patronage he has experienced the rapid and yet more extensive Sale of every new Edition, of his much admired and very useful Publication (Browne's General Law-List) which sufficiently proves it to be of the greatest Utility, not only to every Practitioner, but also to those Persons who have Occasion to transact Business with them.

THE many Additions and various Improvements in every past Edition, when compared with his first Attempt must be obvious to every one. Besides the great Assistance he constantly receives from every part of the Kingdom; he is now singularly honoured with the Patronage of the Right Honourable the Chief Justices, and the Honourable, the Judges of his Majesty's Courts of King's-bench and Common-pleas, to have Access to the Rolls, Register and Certificate-books of the above courts, in order to prevent future, the many Impositions on the Editor and the Public, which have been but too common, by Persons sending their Addresses for Insertion as

Attorneys

P R E F A C E.

Attorneys, who never were admitted, a practice so long and justly complained of, which enables him now to publish a more correct Edition than any former, under their Sanction.

ALTHOUGH, no Industry, Trouble, or Expence have been spared for these sixteen Years past, to render this Work as useful and correct as possible, by the Editor's applying to most Attorneys, &c. in Town and Country; yet from the continual daily Variations occasioned by Deaths, Partnerships, Purchases, &c. &c. he humbly solicits his Friends in general, and the Gentlemen of the Law in particular, to transmit to Him, at his House, in Bride-lane, Fleet-street, or Mess. Whieldon and Butterworth, such Information as may supply the unavoidable Defects from such Fluctuations, that they may be inserted in their regular Order, in the next Edition, which will be carefully attended to, and thank-received with any useful Hint.

To the Right Honourable the Lord Chief Justice, and Other Judges of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench.

The Rt. Hon. the Chief Justice and Judges of Common Pleas, have also given their positive Orders for the Editor to have Access to the Register Book of Attorneys of their Court, for Publication.

AN ORDER of CCURT of KING's BENCH.

WHEREAS the Habitations of many Attornies, practising in this Court, resident in and near the Cities of London and Westminster, are often very difficult to be found, whereby it is impracticable duly to serve them with Notices, Summonses, Orders and Rules to the great delay of the Proceedings in this Court; for Remedy whereof for the future, it is ordered, That the Master shall forthwith cause to be prepared a proper ALPHABETICAL BOOK for the Purposes after-mentioned, and that the same shall be publickly kept at the Master's Office in the King's-Bench Walks, to be there inspected by any Attorney or his Clerk. And that every Attorney practising in this Court, and residing within London or Westminster, or within ten Miles of the same, shall, before the first Day of the next Term, enter in such Book (in Alphabetical Order) his Name and Place of Abode, or some other proper Place within the Cities of London or Westminster, where he may be served with such Notices, Summonses, Orders, and Rules. And every Attorney afterwards to be admitted and practising & residing as aforesaid, shall, upon his Admission, make the like Entry; and as often as any such Attorney shall change his Place of Abode, or the Place where he may be so served with Notices, Summonses, Orders, and Rules, he shall make the like Entry thereof in said Book. And that all Notices, Summonses, Orders, and Rules which do not require Personal Service, shall be deemed sufficiently served on such Attorney, if a Copy thereof should be left at the Place last entered in such Book with any Person resident at, or belonging to such Place. And such Attorney neglecting to make such Entry, that then the fixing up of any Notice, or the Copy of any Summons, Order, or Rule, for such Attorney in the Master's Office, shall be deemed a sufficient Service, unless the Matter be such as shall require Personal Service.

By the COURT.

✎ In Consequence of the above Order, the Editor begs the Attornies will always be early in their Entry of Admissions and Removals, and to make them as clear as possible, with the No. of their House, as he will in future chiefly depend upon the Register Books for Publication.

In

In the King's Bench. — Trinity Term, 31 Geo. III.

GENERAL RULE.

IT IS ORDERED, That from and after the last Day of Michaelmas Term next ensuing, no Attorney, who shall be retained or employed as a Writer or Clerk by any other Attorney, shall, during the Time of such Employ, take or have any Clerk under Articles; and that no Service to any such Attorney under Articles, during the Time that such Attorney shall be so employed by any other Attorney, shall be deemed good Service.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That from and after the same last Day of Michaelmas Term, no Person, who shall enter into Articles with an Attorney or Attornies, shall be at Liberty to serve the Agent or Agents of such Attorney or Attornies, under such Articles, for a longer Time than one Year of his Clerkship, And that any such service to an Agent or Agents beyond that Time shall not be deemed good Service. And, to the intent that better Information may be obtained touching the Fitness and Qualifications of Persons applying to the admitted Attornies.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That from and after the same last Day of Michaelmas Term, every Person who shall intend to apply for Admission as an Attorney in this Court, and who shall not have been admitted an Attorney or Solicitor of any other Court, shall, for the Space of one full Term, previous to the Term in which such Person shall apply to be admitted, cause his Name and Place of Abode, and also the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of the Attorney or Attornies to whom he shall have been articulated, written in legible Characters, to be affixed on the Outside of the Court of King's-Bench, in such Places as Public Notices are usually affixed; and also in some conspicuous Place in the Chambers of each of the Judges of this Court, and in the King's-Bench Office. And that no Person who shall not have regularly complied with this Order, shall, in future, be admitted an Attorney in this Court.

By the Court,

☞ A Notary, according to the original acceptation, is, a person (usually a Scrivener) who takes notes, or makes short draughts of contracts, obligations, or other Instruments—Stat. 27, Edw. 3. c. 1. At this time, we understand by a Notary Public, a person whose office it is publickly to attest deeds or writings, to make them authentic in another country; but principally in business relating to merchants; hence it is their official department to make protests of Bills of Exchange, &c. So that noting a Bill, implies the Notary's going to present it, as a witness, to take notice of the Drawer's refusal to accept or pay the same; in which case he writes his initials on the face of the Bill, with the day of the month when acceptance or payment was refused.

N.B. There are several Banker's Clerks made Notarys in order to note and protest Bills.

COURT of MARSHALSEA, in Southwark,

And the COURT of the KING's Palace at Westminster.

Sittings in the Court-house in Southwark every Friday.

THE Marshalsea is an ancient Court of Record, to determine Suits between those of the King's House and others within the Verge.

The Judges of the Court are, the Stewards and Knight Marshal of the King's House for the Time being, who have Cognizance of all Manner of Pleas of Treipass committed within the Verge of the same House, so as either Party be of the same House; and other Actions personal, wherein both Parties are the King's Servant's: And this is the proper Jurisdiction of the Marshalsea Court.

But the Curia Patila, or Court of the Palace, was erected by K. Charles I. and made a Court of Record, called the Court of the King's Palace at Westminster, for Trial of all personal Actions, the Liberty whereof extendeth itself 12 Miles round Whitehall, into Middlesex, Essex, Surry and Kent, (the City of London excepted) which Jurisdiction was confirmed by Charles II.

The leading Process, which may be had at any of the Offices in Clifford's-inn, is by CAPIAS or ATTACHMENT, which is served upon the Defendant by one of the Officers, who taketh Bond, with two Sureties, for the Defendant's Appearance at the next Court, as will be responsible for.

Defendant must appear by Attorney, at the Return of the Writ, and put in Bail by the Wednesday following, which if he neglects, the Plaintiff may have the Bond taken for Defendant's Appearance assigned over to his Use.

Next Court after Bail is taken Plaintiff declares, wherein he sets forth the Cause of Action, and proceeds to Issue and Trial by Jury, in 4 or 5 Court Days; (of that their Proceedings are quick and speedy, unless an HABEAS CORPUS CUM CAUSA carry away the Plaintiff into a superior Court at Westminster, but then the Debt must be above 5*l*. If such Debt be under 10 l. it cannot be allowed, until Bail be put in before a Judge of this Court.

In this Court are held Pleas of all Manner of Personal Actions whatsoever, as Debt, Trespass, Battery, Trover, and all Actions on the Case, &c.

By the KING's ROYAL LICENCE,

The most Wonderful PHÆNOMENON ever invented, and is deservedly ranked with the SEVEN WONDERS of the WORLD.

BROWNE'S FIRE VADE-MECUM,

For Procuring a LIGHT in a Moment, without FLINT, STEEL or TINDER.

IT may be carried in a Breeches Pocket, it will last Years, light many Thousand Times, and forms a compleat Candlestick and Wax-Candle to last an Hour; and is the only ONE patronized by Parliament, and to be depended upon for Duration.

It is not only of the greatest Utility in Case of Sickness
the dreadful Alarms of Fire or House-breakers in the dead of Night, but is particularly recommended to Gentlemen of the Law, Public Offices, Libraries, Mariners, Mine-Workers, Night-Travellers, Smokers, Midwives, pregnant Ladies, &c.

DIRECTIONS. A common Match will split to make Four, which must be cut with a picked point, and the lighter you put it into the Bottle the better.—Great Care must be taken to have a dry Cork, with a long Top, so as to keep it close stopped, which if screwed in tight when used, will preserve it many Years; and as no Climate can injure them, no Danger can arise from Captains of Ships, Merchants, &c. giving extensive Orders.

The Apparatus compleat, neatly fitted up in Shagreen Cases is only 4s.—Red Green or Blue Morocco, gilt, 4s.
6d.—and to any Price, to according the fitting up.

Sold by Dr. J. BROWNE. Alchemist, the Original Inventor and Licentee, in Bride-Lane, Fleet-street, and sold by his Appointment in every capital Town in England, Ireland, Scotland Wales, and the Plantations.
